Earliest Baptist Church in Lycoming Co., Pa.

The FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH in the West Branch Valley was formed at the home of Jacob Tomb at Slate Run (Brown Twp., Lycoming Co., Pa.), and is attested to in the minutes of the Church Council as follows:

"On January 17, 1827, at the home of Jacob Tomb, on Big Pine Creek, an Ecclesiastical Council composed of Eli Gitchell from the Sullivan Church; Joseph Bingham, from Columbus and Wells Churches; Hegekiah West, from Orwell and Shesequin Churches, and Deacons Samuel Rockwell and Daniel Rogers from the Canton Churches, met with the following 18 persons;

Edward McMasters	Jacob Yantz
Jacob Tomb, and wife Sara	Priscilla Campbell
Ann Tomb	Elizabeth Campbell
Nancy Tomb	William M. Willits
Robert Campbell	Wm. Diggan and wife Jane
Samuel Campbell, and wife	John Morrison
Elizabeth	Nathan ----

The Council was called for the purpose of examining the fitness of the above persons and in advising them in the matter of organizing a Baptist Church. The council opened with singing and prayer. Business was then taken up. Elder H. West was elected moderator, and Deacon S. Rockwell, clerk. Next the council examined the articles of faith and covenant of those seeking to form the church, and the personal fitness of those present. Council adjourned and retired to form their decision, which was as follows: Council agrees that Elder Eli Gitchell preach the sermon and Elder West give the right hand of Fellowship.

"At the 12th session of the Northumberland Baptist Association held in Milton in 1832 the church, with 34 members, was received as a member of the association. The right hand of fellowship was extended to Robert McMasters and Benjamin Tomb, who represented the church.

"The field of the new church was very large, geographically. It reached from the first fork of Pine Creek down to the Susquehanna River 12 miles, with places of meeting at First Forks, English's Island, Tomb's Run schoolhouse, Forge Schoolhouse, and Phelp's Mills. Then up the river as far as Lock Haven, with places of meeting on both sides the river at Chatham's Run and Wayne Township. An out-station at Granville, now Antes Fort, and another in Nippenose Valley were maintained.

"The places of worship occupied by the church were many during the first 10 years because of the scattered memberships. Meetings were held in log cabins, schoolhouses, the homes of members and friends, occasionally in barns and frequently along the banks of the river and creek.

"In 1832 the Baptists and Presbyterians built a joint house of worship in Jersey Shore. The building was erected of brick. The two churches occupied the building until 1842 when the Baptists sold their share to the Presbyterians."

There is a gap in Baptist records on Pine Creek until the following piece of rag paper found among old items of the Brown (Twp.) Baptist Church at Cedar Run, Pa. (also known as Gamble Baptist Churchyard and Congregation:

"We, the undersigned do agree to pay the sum next to our names for the purpose to furnish the Baptist House of Worship which has lately been erected in Brown Township the money to be paid to the trustees on or before the first of October. (No date - old rag paper) Probably in 1850's or before.)

Deaths Continued

A lengthy account of death and funeral here of which we only give pertinent excerpts:

Mrs. Sarah Mariah Wilson - died at residence of her son A. A. Emick, Oct. 7, 1895 few days after fall from a chair. She was born in Athens, Bradford Co., Pa., July 7, 1807 so was 88 years, 3 mos. at her death---eulogy follows---omitted here-----

"Mrs. Wilson was a daughter of Aaron Webster who died when she was 4 years old and she went soon to live with a family named Elliott. She remembered the first court held in Wellsboro---about 1813. After leaving Elliott's she lived a year with John Morris of Wellsboro---for next 5 years with William Beake, Sr. About 1820 her mother married (2) William Babb, Sr. then she lived with them. In 1827 she was married to William Emick and to him had nine children: William B.; Parnell; John J.; Alfred A.; George W.; Thomas L.; Justina; Samuel; and Alexander of which these five underlined survive her. She spent a few years at Camp Corners (now Oregon Hill) three years in Manchester (now Ansonia) but much of her life in Babb's Creek (now Morris) in Morris Twp., Tioga Co. Her husband, the Rev. William Emick was a Baptist preacher and he died in 1849.

"In 1854 she married (2) John Wilson with whom she lived 37 years, he died in 1891 and after his death she lived with her son Alfred Emick.

"When she began life there were only log cabins, fireplace the only stove and to crane in the corner was hung the iron pot---pine knot served as lamp at night until came the tallow dip---the ox was man's best friend--few books, papers, teachers or preachers, etc.---Funeral sermon by Rev. Bradford of Stony Fork, assisted by Rev. J.W. Leach and Rev. I. Emory Weeks. Burial Mt. Pleasant M. E. Cemetery

Academy Hill Cemetery
(Wellsboro Cemetery)
Tioga Co., Pa.

(Interesting Article Written by Mrs. C. E. Jennings, of Wellsboro.)

On July 14, 1806, Benjamin Wistar Morris and his wife, Mary Wells Morris, conveyed to John Fleming, William Hill Wells and William Ellis, as trustees, 150 acres of land "for the use of Tioga county forever." The selection of this site was the culmination of plans of Mr. Morris after the purchase of the land by him from the State of New York, in honor of his wife.

Soon he caused an advertisement to be inserted in the Locoming Gazette offering superior inducements to purchasers of lots. A choice of the first ten lots, 60 x 250 feet would be sold for $20 each, also the privilege of purchasing 50 acres adjoining the limits of the town at $2.50 an acre, payable in four, five or six years. The Pine Creek Lumber Co. made a similar offer to farmers to purchase farms of from 100 to 200 acres.

At this time, Mr. Morris had set apart a half acre, on what was later known as Academy Hill, to be used as a grave yard. In time, it began to be crowded, and another burial place was secured. Many were reluctant to abandon the old graveyard and were opposed to the removal of the remains of their friends. To them, the place was a sacred spot hallowed by the tenderest memories.

However, a number were removed to the beautiful new cemetery, and the old spot was left, except in rare instances, to a state of neglect. The remains of Benj. Wistar Morris, who died in 1825, and those of his wife, who died in 1819, were removed to the northeast corner of the new cemetery.

Below is a list of those graves still marked by stones in a state of good preservation, while more are unmarked, and some have markers of plain native stone. Among them are to be found the graves of three soldiers who fought for the independence of America, and other pioneers who gave to Wellsboro the benefit of their integrity and loyalty.

Shearer Jackson, a Revolutionary war soldier, had lived in a small frame house diagonally across from the Dr. Shearer house. He was greatly interested in hunting for minerals, firmly believing that wonderful resources were hidden in the hills of Tioga county and claimed to be the first suggester of the presence of coal in the county.

He was the grandfather of Mary Emily Jackson, who was a pupil at the Wellsboro Academy in 1828, and who developed a good deal of literary ability. Her poems were published, and were pronounced equal to any written by Mrs. Hemans, the poetess of that day. Miss Mary Miller, of Wellsboro, is a descendant of Ebenezer Jackson. The stone which marked his grave has been destroyed.

Israel Greenleaf, another soldier of the Revolutionary War, was a well known early citizen, and lived in a frame house near the present home of Hon. David Cameron, and made wagons in a large building located on the present site of the Hon. A.B. Dunsmore residence. He died June 1, 1847, aged 82 years. Sarah, his wife, died in 1840. It is said that one of his descendants, J. Emory Bryant, of Crookedcreek, has in his possession a coat worn by the soldier while serving with Washington.

Joseph Thompson, a Revolutionary patriot, died Nov. 23, 1842, aged 85 years. He came to Wellsboro from Ostego county, N.Y., in 1820. A daughter, Lucretia, married James Kimball, an early hotel keeper here. Another daughter became the wife of Col. Hiram Freeborn, for many years a prominent business man of Knoxville.

Johnathan Webster, botanic physician, who it has been learned was a descendant of Noah Webster, died Aug. 15, 1843, aged 43 years, and Milly, his wife, died April 8, 1843, aged 48 years.

Amos Coolidge (grandparents of Owen B. Coolidge of Jersey Shore, Pa.) died May 16, 1851, and Pamela, his wife, died in 1843. A daughter, Mary, died in 1845. Amos Coolidge first built and lived some years in a house that stood on the site of the Bennett house, now called "Beuna Vista." He was the father of a large family, and has many descendants living in and near Wellsboro at the present time. He was an active and enterprising man, and did much to advance the material interests of the time.

Daniel Ritter died June 15, 1843, aged 43 years.

David Henry, Jr., died July 6, 1850, aged 67 years.

James Henry died Sept. 30, 1849, aged 60 years.

Many epitaphs are still distinct and interesting, of which the following are characteristic:

"Ere sin could blight or sorrow fade, Death came with friendly care the spring bud to Heaven conveyed, and bud it blossom there."

"Friends nor physicians could save
My mortal body from the grave
Nor can the grave confine me
When Christ my all bids me."

"Remember me when you pass by
As you are now, so once was I
As I am now, soon you must be
Prepare for death and follow me."

The preservation of this historic spot is well under way. The underbrush has been cut down and cleared away, opening up a beautiful vista looking toward the western hills, wooded with maple and locust. The Spanish American War Veterans, Father Reap and members of his congregation, members of the G.A.R., the P.O.S. of A. and several individuals have already generously shown their interest to be patriotic. But to carry on this work should appeal to every loyal son and daughter of Wellsboro.

Academy Hill Cemetery Continued

It is to be hoped that sufficient help in the way of money and services will be forthcoming, so that the work may be completed in August, and our beautiful town of Wellsboro may add one more historic memorial to its rich heritage of pioneer worth and beauty.

Those wishing to have a part in this are requested to communicate with Mrs. Charles L. Miller or Mrs. Charles E. Jennings.-----Louise Forsythe Jennings.

(Turn to page 99 for the conclusion of Hill Cem,)

(Gleaned from the list printed in NOW & THEN, a publication of the Muncy Historical Society, Vol. VI, pages 25, 65, and 72-6.)

In 1818 an Act requiring 9 months continuous service in the "Continental Line" had been passed.

In 1832 it was modified to 6 months service, not necessarily continuous, and included the militia of the various states. This Act, pensioning all Revolutionary soldiers who had served 6 months or more was passed June 7, 1832, their pensions to begin March 1, 1831.

The claimants made their declaration in open court in the county in which they were then living. By this time many of them ranged in age from 68 to 88 years. Not all could prove the necessary length of service, for various reasons. Others being in fortunate circumstances, never applied. So the list herein given does not by any means include all those who served.

The following declarations have many bracketed notes signed "W F W", who is identified as W. F. Wagner, M.D., of Washington, D.C., and Hartleton, Union Co., Pa. He was the copyist, editor and compiler of these 500 Declarations. He shows himself to be a most painstaking and careful historian. Copies of this collection are on file at the Muncy Historical Society, at the Northumberland County Historical Society, and at Harrisburg State Library.

Death at Trout Run

Mrs. Cornwell, a most estimable Lady, goes to Meet her Reward.

Harriet, daughter of Jeremiah and Elizabeth English, and wife of T. H. Cornwell, of Trout Run, was born November 21, 1839, married in 1856; died February 16, 1891. Funeral services were held at Trout Run, February 19, conducted by Rev. R. S. Talor, assisted by Rev. Kendall.

Her last sickness, which continued four weeks, was one of intense suffering. She found comfort in Christ's own words John 14, 1-3, which she selected as the text for the funeral sermon. She was a member of the M. E. Church, and a faithful, loving and earnest worker in the Master's cause.

As the mother of ten children, eight of whom, with the husband, survive to mourn her loss, she was loving, patient, gentle, cheerful, and helpful; the sharer of toil, the source of joy, the centre of a Christian home; kind neighbor, a true friend, a loving wife and good mother. The family desire to express their gratitude to the neighbors and friends for the kindness shown them in their affliction.

"This is the hope of the Christian life;

The hope through Jesus given.

A hope, when days and years are past

We all shall meet in heaven."

Pastor

John 14, 1-3

Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself; that where I am there ye may be also.

Mrs. Steel Deceased.

Another Good Woman Goes the way of all the World after a brief illness.

A Member of the old Pioneer Family of Goodwin that Settled on Lillibridge Creek Many Years Ago. A long time Member of the Baptist Church. Funeral Yesterday.

Mrs. Samuel S. Steele, died quite suddenly at her home on East Mill Street, Monday evening at eleven o'clock. She had been complaining from a pain in her lungs just below the shoulder blades for several days, but as she had frequently suffered from these congestions for ten years, she wasn't considered in immediate danger. A physician was called and he treated her as he had on several previous occasions, always successfully. She fell into a deep sleep Monday evening and a few hours later was discovered in a coma state, from which she couldn't be aroused, ceasing to breathe at eleven o'clock. The news of the demise of Mrs. Steel came as a great shock to her neighbors here. She was a daughter of the Goodwin family, that started a home in the woods on Lillibridge Creek almost seventy years ago, and if the writer is not mistaken, clearing the farm on which the daughter died Monday. The Goodwin family, enroute to Pittsburg from Massachusetts, via the Allegheny river, stopped here on account of the illness of the mother, and when she had recovered the means of the family had exhausted, necessitating its continuance here. Samuel Steel married Mary Goodwin when she was eighteen years of age, on November 12, 1859, Justice W. J. Davis officiating. She resided here while her husband was at the front, fighting his country's battles, and on his return they commenced housekeeping here. To them were born four children, one dying in infancy. The three, besides the mourning old veteran survive her. They are Samuel, who lives in the West, Mrs. Clara Harries of Annin Creek and Emmet who lives at the home. She was sixty eight years of age. She was the first member baptized in the newly organized Baptist church at Port Allegheny, more than twenty years ago and retained her membership until her demise. The funeral was held yesterday the Baptist Church, Rev. Mentzer himself a veteran, speaking a sympathetic discourse and eulogy. The remains were interred in the family lot in the Port Allegheny Cemetery. The aged husband has the sympathy of all in the loss of a helpmate and companion, the children in the loss of a good mother.

Note: There is two different spellings for Steele in the article.

Charles English

John and Elizabeth English, who have long since departed this life, were of the first settlers of Little Pine Creek. Out of the dense forest where English Centre now stands, they made for themselves a nice home, and unto this couple were born fourteen children, seven boys and seven girls.

Mary, the oldest of the family, was born September 15th, 1807, and is now living in Elk County, Pa.

Jacob, the oldest of the boys, was born June 12th, 1809. He still lives at English Centre, and is very hale and hearty. He enjoys the best of health, and to the writer's recollection he has never had a day of sickness.

Delilah A., the youngest was born June 20th, 1833, and is now living in Jersey Shore, Lycoming County, Pa.

This is not only one of the most remarkable families for number and age, but it is remarkable for weight, five of them weighted over two hundred pounds.

Mr. Charles English, of Brookside, departed this life Sunday, Oct 22nd, aged 59 years, 11 months and fifteen days. He was the first of fourteen children to leave the shores of time, to unite with the sanctified army of God, in eternal glory, and never ending happiness.

The Rev. James Hunter, of Salladasburg, preached the funeral sermon from the third chapter, second verse of Ecclesiastes "And A Time to Die". The sermon was impressive. The friends then took a last farewell look at the remains. His body was followed by a long procession to the Summit Cemetery. Jacob, James, Thomas and William, sons of the deceased, acting as pallbearers. He is now resting from his labors. Yes, quietly sleeping beneath the clouds (clouds???) of the valley. The widow and children sustain a great loss, but their loss is His eternal gain.

No family in Lycoming Co., Pa has a more honorable record than the Cranes. The earliest mention of the family appears in 1637, the name being variously spelled, Crane, Cran, Crain, Craine & Grayne. JASPER CRANE, came from England 1637 with wife Alice & was the emigrant ancestor. Alice's family name is unknown. Their son JASPER CRANE, 2nd, was born 1651 & was a prominent man in New Haven Colony, & one of the original settlers of Newark, N.J. His numerous descendants are scattered throughout the middle, western & southern states. He was one of Committee of Safety to protect the New Haven colony against De Ruyter, the Dutch admiral who cruised in the Long Island Sound & threatened the settlements.

During the Revolutionary War the Connecticut Colony, to increase facilities for Coast defense, put into service 3 boats, or galleys. One was called "The Crane", named in honor of the family who stood so loyally by the Colony. It was sent to N.Y. to assist in the defense under General Washington. The exact cost of "The Crane" was recorded 1,013lbs 6s 10d

Another who gave service to the country was EBENEZER CRANE, a private of the militia designated as "Lexington Alarm". Others of the family served as privates, corporals & captain, & in all colonial wars, War of 1812 & the Mexican War. Love of country has been a distinguishing trait of the family, as well as upright business principles. . .

When Edmund Andros demanded the surrender of the charter of Connecticut, Benjamin Crane was among his opposers. Benj. Crane was a person of independence. . & deferred his marriage . . . until 30yrs of age. . under penalty of 20sh per wk. .

The Cranes are descended from Lord Arundell's family & inherit the blood of Charlemagne & HUGH CAPET, both of whom claimed to spring from Antenor, King of Cimiriens, B.C. 1143.

Of Dame Anne Arundell it is recorded that she left by will, which was proved in 1521, money for wax tapers for the day of her burial & afterwards for use at mass, also money for bells to ring dirges at her obsequies. She willed "her best velvet gown to Chilton Church to make a vestment for the deacon". Her "best black gown furred with white, & her best black gown furred with martin & lined with velvet" fell to the lot of relatives.

Chilton, near Sudbury, in Suffolk, is the home of the Cranes. They lived at Chilton Hall, a moated manor of some distinction, & were Lords of the manor. In Chilton Church is an elaborate marble monument to the memory of Sir Robert Crane, who was knighted by James I. He is in armor kneeling with clasped hands, Dorothy, first wife lived in amity for 17 yrs. . d 4.11.1624. Susan was 2nd wife. . .

JOHN CRANE, was clerk of the kitchen of James I, a position of much honor, & a ROBERT CRANE, of Suffolk, was one of the gentlemen chosen by Charles II, in 1666 to be made knight of the Royal Oak. He had an estate of $75,000 a year.

The Cranes in England have borne 5 coats of arms, not certain whether all of one family. . altho there is reason for believing there were special grants for special services. The several armorials are lacking in mottoes, with the exception of one, . . "Deus pascit Grus" (God feeds the Cranes). They are described in the heraldry as argent; a fesse or bar between 3 crosses, crosslet, gules, crest, a crane.

Family records of the historic Crane family of Lycoming County, Pa., which were inherited by Mrs Catharine Crane Herrick, of Watertown, N.Y., formerly of Jersey Shore, Pa. These are copied in longhand, in an old ledger, which Mrs Herrick still owns.

WALTER CLARK FAMILY

So many Clarks in Lycoming Co, Pa, the letters of Harry F Bressler, of 611 Seabury Ave., Milford, Del., are of great importance in proving this line. Letters were written to Mrs P & Russell, 1315 Allegheny St, Jersey Shore, Pa.

Mrs Russell:

April 11, 1960

On Sunday I talked to Mrs Paul Bailey (*) in Williamsport about Clark ancestors. Unfortunately hers are not mine, & my Clarks pre-date hers at Pine Creek by at least 50 yrs. . . . .

My Clarks came out of old Lancaster Co, now Dauphin Co - in 1750 were at Clark's Ferry located in Paxtang Twp. . . .

By 1775 ROBERT CLARK was at Lewisburg (1715-1798) . . . He and only son Colonel JOHN CLARK (1736-1809) are both buried at Lewisburg.

His brothers were WALTER, and WILLIAM. He had 2 sisters, one of whom married (Robert) Fruit. ** (Deed of 1771 Fruit to Walter Clark. Robert's will names Walter, his bro., as executor.

William & Walter Clark came to White Deer (Twp**) Many Deeds. William died 1813. . he was an original settler of (now **) Union Co, next to the Lycoming Co line. His children were: William; James; Walter; Flavel; and 5 daughters. Mary married James Forrester, who died before 1791.

Walter, Sr sold. . lands 1802 & went to Mercer Co, Pa. Two sons, William & James, had Rev. War patents 1813. Walter, Sr., was representative of old Northumberland Co to Provincial Assembly at Phila in 1775.

1778 Memorial at Pine Creek (? **) signed by Walter Clark, James Clark, James Forrester, William Clark & Robert Fruit. These were either William Clark's sons & son-in-law James Forrester, the Fruit being a cousin, or Walter Clark's sons, & cousin.

Coming the other way my grandmother, Sarah Rebecca Clark, born 1754, oldest dau. of Joseph Clark at Beech Creek, - - Joseph born at Beech Creek 1824 & died at Flemington 1890) - he was youngest son - older brothers James, bn 1822, & William, bn 1820 - of William Clark & Sarah Love. This WILLIAM was oldest settler at Beech Creek. Both WILLIAM, & SARAH LOVE were born near Pine Creek, in Wayne or Nippenose Twp, in latter part of 1786 or 1787. William died 1851 (his will recorded at Lock Haven) and Sarah in 1853.

** Additions by Mrs Russell.

"Sarah Love is the daughter of either John or Robert Live, the two older sons of Robert Love, Sr., so of course grand-daughter of Robert Love, Sr., of Wayne Twp. (then Lycoming, now Clinton Co., Pa --) I believe her mother was Alice Love who married William Ramsey, and George Love of Waterville, her brother. . .

"Grandma died 1937, but while she was living. . of course she knew her great grandparents. . & there was a CLARK FAMILY BIBLE which, alas, was in oldest son William's hands & went to Louisiana about 50 yrs ago with a HAROLD Clark from Beech Creek.

"In 1925 my father & I (we then lived at Williamsport) went to Grandma's great-grandparents graves. Dad said then that long ago Walter Clark had come from White Deer & settled there. I believe this Walter of course, is either a son of Walter Clark, Sr., or of William Clark, Sr. . (2 bros with sons of same name). . .

"Buffalo Cross Roads Presbyterian Church records of 1791 shows 2 pews held by Walter Clark, Sr. . (he had m. a Munice --) and by William Clark (he had m. and Elizabeth --) & the widow, Mary Clark Forrester.

"I recently went to the location but didn't have time to find the graves. But my William Clark 1786-1851 's father is buried along Antes Creek, just towards Jersey Shore. At that time (1925) we crossed Antes Creek over a wood bridge & then about 500 ft along a curve. . . Dad got out of car & walked toward the creek & found the graves. . . Today the bridge is at new location & grade of road changed. . . so far as I know Walter Clark & his wife unknown are buried there. . .

"So, summing up, Walter Clark was there in 1778. It is barely possible that Dad may have known about Walter Clark, Sr., & was referring to him, & thus the Clark buried here is another son of Walter Clark & not Walter, the son of either Walter, Sr or William, Sr., the two brothers.

"Mercer County records show William & James Clark, two sons of Walter Clark, Sr., & BOTH Revolutionary War veterans, there by 1813. Dauphin Co records show Walter, Sr., going there 1802.

" . . . Here I am stuck. . (not knowing which Clark is buried there). . could be Walter, the son of either Walter or William. . . could even be William, son of the William who went to Mercer Co. . .

"While I don't know exactly how, Grandma could have told me, we are related to a Barclay family around Waspert- could be through a Clark girl - a dau of Walter buried here & a sister of William (1786-1851).

" . . . my Clark's are not Mrs Bailey's Clarks (of the Pine Creek Valley) nor are they the Clarks of Oriole who came Thomas Clark, born 1756, whose descendants are still in Hippenose Valley. . . This Thomas is a son of JOHN CLARK at Ft Loudon. . I doubt if related to my Clarks. . "

Letter No 2 of May 7, 1960:

(Excerpts)

"I am not confused at all. I have a complete list of all Clark records of Chester Co from 1700 to 1790. I also have every deed, will, etc. . of old Northumberland Co, Lycoming & Clinton Cos, plus (historians J B Linn & J F Meginness, plus, more important. . I was born at my grandmother's and lived there every summer till I was 18.

"My grandmother Sarah Rebecca Clark was born 9.4.1854 near Beech Creek. She told me long ago all her ancestors. . . . her great grandfather THOMAS MANN was a Rev War soldier & this is confirmed by Massachusetts records. Born 1750 & died 4.12.1820 at Wales, NY. His children came to Center Co, all the Manns, including Robert Thomas Mann (1794-1863) her grandfather.

"Her grandmother was Eva Weber (1794-1881) a dau. of DAVID WEBER, Jr., son of David, Sr, a Rev War soldier, this confirmed by J B Linn & Pa Archives.

"My grandfather, as oldest son, born 1849, had the old Fahringer ? Bible - his great grandfather was Lt John Decker (or Decker ?) & greatgreatgrandfather was John Peter Decker of Reading.

"So - my grandma knew all her ancestors. She said the first Clark of our line in Old Lycoming County was Walter Clark, & I believe her. It is also confirmed by other records. . . The one thing I don't know is the name of the Clark buried near Lochabar Farm (on Antes Creek**). I was to the grave in 1924 with my Dad but didn't get out of the car. Dad did, & he went to the graves, but didn't take any notes, or leave the record.

"My Clarks are not the Tom Clarks of Oriole. . . but they may be back in Chester Co. Tom Clarke died 1764 in Chester Co - his oldest son was a John, & mentions his grandson Thomas in will. . . I have (Tom Clarke of Oriole) has complete record. He was born 1756 at Ft. Loudon, the son of JOHN CLARK. His oldest son was born 1786, the same year as my Clark buried at Beech Creek. Tom's third son was William, bn 1790, he is buried at Collomsville. I have the complete data on them from John's family Bible at Oriole. .

"Sarah Rebecca Clark was 3rd child of Joseph Clark & NAOMI ELIZ. MANN, bn Beech Creek 9.4.1854 & died 1937. Her older bros. were Joseph & Nathaniel, 1850 & 1852 respectively. Joe died in Wmsport & not in Flemington.

"Joseph Clark (1824-1890?) was youngest son of William Clark. . Died at Flemington. ? His older bros. were James, bn 1822 & William, bn 1821.

"WILLIAM CLARK (1786-1851) married Sarah Love (1787-1853) for whom Grandma was named. They are buried Pres. Cem. at Beech Creek. William was born around Pine Creek somewhere. Tombstone gives date of death & age. . . HIS FATHER is buried near Lochabar (on Antes Creek). . .

This letter con'd next page. . . .

" WALTER CLARK, Sr, WILLIAM CLARK, Sr, & Robert CLARK were brothers in Upper Paxton Twp, now Dauphin Co, (then Lancaster Co). . . Robert bn 1715, d. 1798. His will is on record, . names bro. Walter as executor, with his only son Col. John Clark (1736-1809). Col. John's only son was Joseph, I have further data here.

"WILLIAM CLARK, SR, died 1813, had 9 children, married an Elizabeth - -. Mary, & four sisters, sons Walter, James, Flavel, William, ~~and others~~

"Walter Clark, Sr, left no will, I believe died in Mercer Co, Pa. . . George, Robert & Walter Clark settled Paxton Twp in 1750. . . . ) gives some scattered references here. . says were many deeds. . . . & repeats some of the former letter. . . .)

"Going back to Chester Co records, I also have Cope's "Genealogy of Clarks".

"A Walter Clark, grandson of Gabriel Clark, came into Chester Co out of Maryland 1718 & first son was John bn 1719. A bro. Nathaniel also came thru Chester Co to Lancaster Co with 7 sons. Unfortunately, 3 Clarks died between 1720 & 1730 without records (Many? or naming ?) children - a John, a William, & a Henry.

"Tax records show a Walter Clark, single, in 1742, & in 1764 a tax record shows him with 5 sons - John, James, Francis another, & a young man named William.

"Again, in Northumberland records about 1770 three Clarks show up. (North'd Co formed 1772 **). . & you can find five names in records of thosetimes. . . . in 1775 WALTER CLARK came to White Deer, also his bro. William. Robert stayed at Lewisburg (then North'd now Union CO **) Antes Ck & Pine Ck about 25 m. up White Deer Valley. . . Robert 1715-1798; William ca 1725; Walter ca 1718-1720. . . .

"Neither are my clarks the Chillisquaque Clarks & since I know from records that Walter Clark's children were there in 1770, at least by 1775. . . .

"As to Sarah Love. . we are related to the Love's at Waterville. . & to the Ramseys there, thru probably Alice Love who m. William Ramsey about 1820 at Ramsey. . . . (also). . a bro-in-law's grandmother was an Alice Ramsey, bn at Ramsey about 1860 ? . . . He also says it is a possibility that the grave at Antes Creek is named Francis. . ?

"I remember Lyc. Co records show a James Clark in the Chillisquaque area. . in the will of William Clark who died about 1820 at Chillisquaque. . . . ."

"Letter of Mr Bressler of 9.13.1961 to Mrs Russell:

"I can tell you there were 2 Weber's (or Weavers ?) as angelized spelling, in Center County . one was GEORGE Weaver, around Bellefonte about 1800. . . of him I know little & he could have been a bro of my David. . . I will give you what I know of my own line of Webers, or Weavers:

"John David Weber, a veteran of the Rev. War, (see Linn, also Pan Archives at Bethlehem ) was bn at Bethlehem 1753 & died Center Co, Pa 1827, buried at Aaronsburg. . . he was probably son of George Weber who m. Catherine Barbara Keller at Bethlehem in 1748.

"He also m. Eva Margaret Musser (1759-1804) at Bethlehem & came to Aaronsburg in 1783 - buried there.

"David Weber, Jr, born about 1773 and m. Eva Stover, a dau. of Jacob Stover - the son of Valentine Stover, a soldier of the Revolution, according to Historian Linn. (He was at a place called Stover's Gap & this is near Decker's Valley - also my ancestors)

"Their children were:

George Michael Weber, born 1794
Catherine Weber born 1796, my ancestress *
Philip Weber
Elizabeth Weber
Sarah Weber
Christina Weber, webber, or Weaver.

* Catherine, bn 1796, m. Robert Thomas Mann & are buried a top a little hill at Ronola (Center Co). Also buried with the Webers is Elizabeth Mann who never married, (1801 - 1880). She was sister of my Robert Thomas Mann, at Aaronsburg."

See also Milton Purey's "Historical & Biographical" Clinton County, 1892. He says on page 307:

"JAMES CLARK, Esqr (son of William) was born at Beech Creek July 26, 1821. In 1850 he married Rebecca Ann Quiggle, a daughter of Nicholas Quiggle of Beech Creek Township. They had 4 sons and 3 daus:

William Q. Clark
Robert H. "
Harry D. "

Frances E. " Josephine "
Carrie B. "

"EARLY PENNSYLVANIA BIRTHS" 1675-1875, compiled by the late Dr Charles A Fisher, F.I.A.G., of Selinsgrove, Pa, records some births from the Susquehanna Valley, Southern Section. On page 79 of this volume he reports births of:

(Note: This compiler has it that William, Sr, first named above, m. Sarah Patterson, & moved to Headville, Pa. Source of the item now unknown).

Egle's Notes & Queries, III Ser., Vol 3, pp 262-4 gives the father of first named William above & story of their family. He names Sarah Patterson as the wife but also names 11 children, adding Pataline & Jane as daughters.

In "TOMBSTONE inscriptions of Revolutionary Soldiers & their wife in Warren Co., Pa., we note the following:

"SAMUEL CLARK 1754 - 1833. He was born 1754 & notice of his death in "Voice of the People" Dec 25, 1832 reads: "Died. In Conewango Twp on Sunday the 15th, Mr Samuel Clark. He was married April 10, 1797 to Catherine Reese, who received a pension after his death. Wid. file 2530.

"On Sept 8, 1849 James Morrison made affidavit "that he knew Samuel & Catherine Clark before their marriage when they lived in Lycoming Co, Pa, in eastern part of state. Morrison came to Warren Co in 1799 to find a place to settle & on his return home learned of the marriage, & he has known them ever since. . . ."

(Note: Catherine Reese was dau of Martin Reese (1745-1832) who lived first on Pine Creek, then to Warren Co. He left a will, naming all his children.

WILLIAM WELSHANS, grandfather of Okie (Oakland) Welshans and that generation lived at Halls Station, Lycoming Co., Pa. He was overseer of farm and also canal contractor. He moved on and bought what is known as Okie Welshans farm in 1837. He erected the house now standing. The farm contained 460 acres including Shadle and Welshans property. William Welshans lived and reared his family and died on this farm. He was born 1792 at Harrisburg, Pa., died Jan. 14, 1871, aged 79. He was buried in Limestone Cemetery. He was married twice. First wife, Elizabeth Griffin he married October 4, 1814. Second wife was Margaret Jodun. 19 Children were born to these unions, six to first wife and 13 to second wife. Twins died young, others grew to manhood and womanhood. Abram Welshans, a brother to William owned what is now the Grant Welshans and Grant Showers farm. Rebecca Welshans Sallada owned Stewart Groupe farm. William Welshans, Jr. built the house and owned the property or farm next to his father William Welshans, Sr. This farm has continued on by his son Nelson Welshans and his son Sees (Jacob Sees) Welshans.

At one time the greater part of upper end of Nippenose Valley was owned by the Welshans families. This indicates that they are a thrifty, industrious people. Nearly all the earlier Welshans were farmers and many are still following that occupation at present. A number of them are fond of hunting and fishing. They are a hearty people and live to be three score and ten years.

(The Welshans family had annual reunions but have no long. This writeup was made when they met in 1934, unsigned, but of interest) Copy now owned by Evelyn Welshans Jenkins of R. D. #2, Jersey Shore, Lycoming Co., Pa.

This stone was erected in his memory by J.M. Wattles, of Bradford County as a mark of filial affection and gratitude.

DANIEL WATTLES was one of the early settlers in Rutland Township, but the year of his coming could not be ascertained. He served during the Revolutionary War in Capt. William Moulton's company of the Second Battalion, raised for the defense of the Connecticut coast, from Horse-neck to New Haven. He was hired by the town of Lebanon, Connecticut, and joined the Company July 25, 1781.

Pg. 209: STEPHEN MORRILL, SR., A native of Maine, and an early settler of Jackson Township, was a veteran of the Revolution. His son, Stephen, served in the War of 1812, in a marine regiment. Had 8 chn: Stephen; Ann; Jane; Mary; Bertha; Hiram; Jefferson; & William.

Pg. 209: JAMES GRAY, SR., came from Otsego county, New York, and settled at Gray's Valley, in Sullivan Township, in 1805, and was one of the pioneers of the township. He was born in Sharon, Conn., in 1760, served seven years in the Continental army and was discharged with the rank of captain. He died in Sullivan Township in March, 1846.

Pg. 210 & 1087: RUSSELL ROSE, settled in what is now Ward Township in 1807, but soon afterward removed to and located near the State Road in Sullivan Township. He was born in Connecticut, June 11, 1753, and when twenty-three years of age enlisted in the Continental army and remained until the war ended, rendering good and efficient service. While in camp at Valley Forge he was promoted to serve as an aide on Washington's staff. He died in Sullivan township June 1, 1830. Wife was (1) Phoebe Orvis (2) Lydia Orvis. 10 children

Pg. 210: JEREMIAH NUNSEY, an early settler in Sullivan Twp., was also a soldier in the Revolutionary Army. He resided in Sullivan Twp. for many years and died at the age of ninety.

Pg. 210: EBENEZER BURLIN, who settled in Richmond township in 1808, was a Revolutionary soldier. He died in 1937, aged eighty-seven yrs.

Pg. 210: BETH CLARK, who came from Wilbraham, Massachusetts, in 1814, and settled in Richmond Township, was a Revolutionary Soldier and carried a musket under Washington.

Pg. 210: DEACON ISAAC LOWSBERRY, born December 21, 1757, served in the Revolutionary army. He came to Tioga county in 1818 and settled at Cance Camp, where he died April 4, 1951, aged ninety-four years.

Pg. 209: MAJOR EBENEZER HIPLIN, who came from Coopers town, New York, in 1817, and settled in Lamb's Creek, served in the Continental army with the rank of major. After coming to Tioga county he was appointed Justice of the Peace.

Pg. 210 & 1055: LIEUT. JACOB ALLEN, who was born in Massachusetts in 1763, entered the Continental Army as an aide-de-camp to his father, who was killed in the early part of the war. Young Allen remained in the service to the close and was promoted to the rank of lieutenant. He came from Mass. in 1818 and settled near Mansfield where he died Dec. 11, 1836, aged seventy-three years.

Pg. 210, 361 & 765: PETER SHUMWAY, a native of Massachusetts, came to Tioga County about 1805, and located at Mansfield. A year later he removed to Charleston Township, and settled on Shumway Hill. He was a veteran of the Revolution, serving nearly seven years. There is now in the possession of his grandson, Peter E. Shumway, of Wellsboro, the original discharge received by him, June 9, 1783. This rare and highly-prized relic shows that Peter Shumway was a "Soldier of the Fourth Massachusetts regiment;" that he "faithfully served the United States six years and three months," having "enlisted for the war only." John Trumbull, Jr., certified that it was "given at headquarters by His Excellency's command." It was signed by Washington himself, the signature, "Go Washington," being clear, bold and distinct. It bears unmistakable evidence of genuineness. Another high officer, whose name has become dimmed by age, certified that "the above PETER SHUMWAY, soldier, has been honored with a badge of merit, for six years' faithful service," and "John M. Davis, adjutant," certifies that it is "registered in the books of the regiment."

This venerable relic of Revolutionary days, although 114 years old, is in fair state of preservation, and with care will easily last another century. Inclosed in the same frame with the discharge are two specimens of "Massachusetts Bay" paper money of the time, coarse-grained and antique in design. One bill is of the denomination of $8; the other No. 59,222, and calls for $65, "in gold or silver." In the contemplation of these old documents one's mind is carried back to "the time that tried men's souls"-the days that were dark and gloomy, and when the cause of liberty trembled in the balance.

After Peter Shumway's death in 1833, the discharge passed into the hands of his son, SLEMAN SHUMWAY. He died May 3, 1864. It then became the property of his son, N.P. Shumway. During recent years it has been in the possession of Melvina L. Shumway, wife of Jonathan V. Morgan, and is now owned by Peter E. Shumway, Wellsboro, a great-grandson of the Peter Shumway to whom it was originally given as an evidence of faithful service in the Revolutionary army. It is an heirloom of inestimable value.

Pg. 211 & 699: COL. JUSTUS DARTT, THE Founder of Dartt Settlement in Charleston Township, where he located in 1811, was a soldier of the Revolution and afterwards a colonel in the Vermont militia. He died in Charleston July 5, 1838, aged eighty-one years. Wife Hannah died 1-14-1844 at 85. There are numerous descendants.

Pg. 211 & 267: ISRAEL GREENLEAF, an early settler and tavern keeper in Wellsboro, was also a Revolutionary Soldier. He died June 1, 1847, aged eighty-two years, and lies buried in the old graveyard on Academy Hill in Wellsboro. Wife Sarah died 3- 8-1840 at 72 yrs. In the same graveyard lies buried JOSEPH THOMPSON, another Revolutionary Soldier, who died November 23, 1842, aged eighty-five years. This graveyard, having been abandoned many years ago, has become overgrown with brush and brushles, and the graves of these two heroes are sadly neglected.

Pg. 766: JOSEPH THOMPSON, born Stonington, Conn. Jan. 5, 1757, youngest of 18 children. Served in Rev. in Conn. Later came to Otsego Co., N.Y. & there m. Catherine Coates who bore him these children: Joseph; Alanson; Lucretia who m. James Kimball; Cynthia; Lorinda who m. Col. Hiram Freeborn; and Alden. Died 11-23-1842 and is buried Academy Hill Cemetery, Wellsboro. Aged 85 yrs.

Pg. 211 & 935: DEACON RICHARD ELLIS, a native of Ashfield, Mass., served in the Revolution army. He settled in Delmar Twp. in 1811 and died in Ellisburg, Potter County, in 1841. Born 12-20-1760 m. sisters (1) Eunice Chilson (2) her sister.

Pg. 211, 215 & 267: ROYAL COLE, who settled in Wellsboro about 1818, and who became a well-known and prominent citizen, was a veteran of both the Revolutionary War and the War of 1812. He died in Wellsboro, July 4, 1849, in his ninetieth year.

Wellsboro, Pa. The Wellsboro Gazette - February 5, 1891

Held up by Road Agents

On Wednesday night of last week as Mr. Robert Lloyd of Delmar was driving from Morris to his home he met with an incident which he will remember for some time. It was a very dark and rainy night, and just as he drove upon the high bridge below Sand Run a man jumped forward and grabbed his horse by the bit. Mr. Lloyd was then commanded to get out of the cutter and hold up his hands. Two men then held the frightened horse while a third went through Mr. Lloyd's pockets. They secured about five dollars in change, and after roundly cursing him for not having more money permitted him to get back in his cutter and drive on. Fortunately just before reaching the bridge Mr. Lloyd had taken his pocket book from his pocket and placed it under the cushion of the cutter seat, and is just the amount ahead. He has frequently traveled over this road at night carrying large amounts of money and this is his first experience of this character.

BLACKWELL FAMILY, by James Blackwell      Written for the gatekeeper.

JOHN and SARAH BLACKWELL, Nallsworth, Glostershire, England and ENOCH BLACKWELL, SR. of Haven Parish, Glostershire, England, children of Enoch, Sr.; WILLIAM Blackwell, JOHN, NANCY, PHOEBE, HANNAH, SARAH, and ENOCH, half brother.

Children of John and Sarah, ENOCH, SR., THOMAS, PETER, and JOSHUA:

Children of Joshua and John H. Blackwell, GEORGE, ENOCH the 3rd and Amelia;

Children of Enoch the 3rd, WILLIAM BUSH BLACKWELL, GEORGE A., SPENCER W., EDWARD S., CHRISTINE C. These all came over in 1804. Sailed from Bristol April 2nd, landed at Philadelphia, May 17th. Along with the company was a lad 13 yrs. old, THOMAS LLOYD and a lady by name SARAH LUGG. She became the wife of THOMAS CHURCH and later the wife of Enoch Blackwell, Sr. This company of new purchased 12,000 acres of land in the counties of Tioga and Lycoming and paid $1200 for it. A Presbyterian minister, JOHN HAY, was the leader. In Spring of 1805 they started for their new homes and reached there in safety and commenced living in their darksome kind of wilderness, a forest of the largest kind of timber practically pine and hemlock. They worked and cleared up several farms. After several years, they became discontented and began to leave. Their place was named English Settlement, its name today Oregon Hill. I think the first to leave was Enoch, Sr. He went to Pine Creek (where Blackwell is today) and purchased 400 acres of land, and commenced to clear it up and lumbered. This was Spring of 1810. He farmed and lumbered till Spring of 1816, and went down the river with his lumber and was taken sick at Jersey Shore and died, age 53. WILLIAM was the oldest son, and JOHN, NANCY, HANNAH, PHOEBE and SARAH. NANCY married a man by name of HENRY TOMB and died at Dantz Run on Pine Creek. HANNAH married a Haylock and they went West. SARAH MARRIED JOHN GAMBLE of Jersey Shore. PHOEBE married a man by the name of Shearer and went to Illinois. ENOCH, half-brother, settled at Nelson, Tioga Co.

MASSACRE OF WYOMING, PA.

Perhaps the last of the survivors of the event which has been made the subject of the interesting poem of the gifted CAMPBELL is the person whose death is recorded in the annexed notice.

The actual horrors of the scene of death and conflagration, or the dramatic incident embodied in the fiction founded upon it must be vivid in the recollections of our readers.

A Mother of Wyoming we find in a Connecticut paper an account of the recent decease of MRS. ESTHER SKINNER of Tarringford in the 100 year of her life.

Mrs. Skinner lost a husband, a brother and two sons in the American Revolution; She with her family was a resident of Wyoming, at the massacre of its inhabitants by Brandt, the Indians and Tories. Her two sons fell beneath the tomahawk but the Mother almost by miracle escaped with six of the children. Her son-in-law was the only one that escaped out of 20 that threw themselves in the River and attempted to hide beneath the foliage, all were massacred.

Mr. Campbell, the poet is said to be engaged upon a poem on the subject of Poland.

He is known as Campbell Tones Poete Anglais

Above copied by Mrs. Lola Franke, a great-great-grand-daughter of Edmund Wetherbee, early settler. She reports that a large dead tree has fallen across the stones and steel wire fence of the Stone lot, destroying some of the stones. There are wooden crosses placed at gravesites all around the plot, some broken over. No identification on them, however. But there must be graves for each.

Lola Franke.
